

It is outrageous that Sinclair Broadcasting has decided to force its stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election. It is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation and clearly abuses its free-of-charge access to public airwaves, which are for the purpose of serving the public interest and not Sinclair's interests.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
